ECHOES OF CHICAGO Invites Chicago to annual Happy Birthday Chicago event to celebrate Windy City culture, creatives, and innovators

February 2nd, 2017

CHICAGO, IL –In honor of Chicago’s rich history and vibrant culture, Echoes of Chicago will be hosting the not-to-be-missed party: the sixth annual Happy Birthday Chicago! Join the celebration at Morgan’s on Fulton in the historic Fulton Market District on Saturday March 25th from 6:00pm to 12:00am for a suggested $10 donation.

Along with arts and music, Echoes celebrates Chicago’s cultural roots of influential achievements in social justice work. Echoes produces themed events that connect to areas of social justice work, inviting local nonprofits to host informational tables and receive 100% of each event’s profits. Happy Birthday Chicago is Echoes’ annual fundraiser to support and expand their impact.

This year’s event will feature

- an art gallery showcasing over 30 local artist
- a marketplace featuring local artisans and businesses
- local music performances
- local beers and spirits
- special guests and performances
- a local food truck
- arts and crafts tables
- a Chicago themed photo booth
- and more!

This year’s event also coincides with Echoes launching a crowdfunding campaign to create a new Chicago Arts and Community Center: The Echo Chamber. It will provide an event space, permanent gallery, dedicated studio workspace, and culture shop for the community. The Echo Chamber will be a home-base that further allows them to establish their vision of creating a welcoming, affordable space truly accessible to everyone to appreciate the local arts.

About Echoes of Chicago

Echoes of Chicago is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to create affordable, innovative arts and music events that promote Chicago culture and community while raising awareness and funds for local nonprofits. By using traditional elements such as music and the arts to build an audience, they reinforce community by supporting local organizations, businesses, entrepreneurs, artists, and creatives at each of our events. Through their events, they have raised over $20,000 for other local nonprofits.

Echoes is entirely volunteer-run and donate 100% of each event’s profits to local nonprofits. Happy Birthday Chicago is their annual fundraiser where they raise funds to support and expand their organization and its future events. When a drop hits... it ripples
